2026 NATIONAL AWARD HONOREE:

JERRY COLANGELO, HOF

Jerry Colangelo is a businessman and sports executive whose career is rooted in community development. He currently serves as a founding partner of real estate firm JDM Partners, LLC, and Chairman of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame.

A pivotal figure in American sports, Mr. Colangelo served as the owner of the Phoenix Suns and Arizona Diamondbacks, as well as Managing Director of the USA Men's National Basketball Team. Mr. Colangelo's ability to inspire and generate support are traits that have followed him throughout his career. Arriving in Arizona as the youngest general manager in professional sports, he spent 43 years guiding the Suns as GM, Head Coach, President, CEO, and Chairman. He brought Major League Baseball to Phoenix in the late 1990s, leading the Diamondbacks from expansion to a World Championship in just four years - a record pace in baseball history. Taking charge of USA Basketball in 2005, he revamped the national program by recruiting top NBA talent and Hall of Fame coach Mike Krzyzewski, leading the team to four consecutive gold medals.

In the 1980s, Colangelo co-founded JDM Partners, LLC, which has completed over 100 transactions nationwide. Today, JDM owns premier assets like the Arizona Biltmore Golf Club and Wigwam Resort, standing as one of the largest owners of entitled land in the Phoenix area.

Inducted into the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame in 2004, Colangelo was named Arizona's Most Influential Sports Figure of the 20th Century. His legacy also includes Grand Canyon University's Colangelo School of Sports Business and extensive service on numerous civic boards, such as: Young Life, Valley Big Brothers, Phoenix Art Museum, Valley of the Sun YMCA, greater Phoenix Economic Council, and many other local and national organizations.

By far the greatest accomplishment of his life is his faith and his family. Jerry has been married to his wife, Joan, for 64 years. They have raised four children (Kathy Holcombe, Krissie Young, Bryan Colangelo and Mandie Colangelo). Jerry and Joan have 15 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. Jerry and Joan currently live in Phoenix, Arizona.
